Dear Shareholder:

This notice provides detailed information which may assist you and your advisors. This notice is for informational purposes only. No action is required on your part.

CBRE Clarion Global Real Estate Income Fund (the "Fund") has declared a monthly distribution of $0.05 per share for the month of February 2017. You are receiving this notice as a requirement of the Fund's managed distribution plan. This notice is intended to provide insight into the estimated character of the current (and year-to-date) distribution(s) in terms of income, capital gain, and return of capital. You should expect to receive this notice with every distribution. The character of the current (and YTD) distribution(s) will change through the course of the year, as the Fund's estimates of the sources of its income become more clear.

The Fund has paid or declared total distributions of $0.10 per share to date in fiscal year 2017 (January 1, 2017 to February 28, 2017). The source of the distributions declared for the month and current fiscal year is estimated as follows:

Estimated Source of Distributions:
Distribution		Estimated Allocations
		Net Investment Income	Net Realized Short-Term Capital Gains	Net Realized Long-Term Capital Gains	Return of Capital
Current	$0.05	$0.013 (26%)	-- (0%)	-- (0%)	$0.037 (74%)
YTD	$0.10	$0.026 (26%)	-- (0%)	-- (0%)	$0.074 (74%)

The allocations reported in this notice are only estimates and are not provided for tax reporting purposes. The actual allocations will depend on the Fund's investment experience during the remainder of its fiscal year and will not be finalized until after year-end. In addition, the allocations reported to shareholders for tax reporting purposes will also reflect adjustments required under applicable tax regulations. Some of these tax adjustments are significant, and amounts reported to you for tax reporting may be substantially different than those presented in this notice. SHAREHOLDERS WILL BE SENT A FORM 1099-DIV FOR THE CALENDAR YEAR INDICATING HOW TO REPORT FUND DISTRIBUTIONS FOR FEDERAL INCOME TAX PURPOSES.

The estimated allocations presented above are based on the Fund's monthly calculation of its year-to-date net investment income, capital gains and returns of capital. The Fund's investment income is mainly comprised of distributions received from the real estate investment trusts (REITs) and other companies in which it invests. "Net investment income" refers to the Fund's investment income offset by its expenditures, which include the fees paid to the investment adviser and other service providers. "Net realized capital gains" represents the aggregation of the capital gains and losses realized by the Fund from its purchase and sale of investment securities during the year-to-date period. Short-term capital gains are those arising from the sale of securities held by the Fund for less than one year. Long-term capital gains are those arising from the sale of securities held by the Fund for a year or more. The amount of net realized capital gains is also offset by capital losses realized in prior years. Adjustments to net investment income are made based on the character of distributions received by the Fund. A portion of the distributions the Fund receives from REITs will be characterized by the REITs as capital gains or returns of capital. Because REITs often reclassify the distributions they make, the Fund does not know the ultimate character of these distributions at the time they are received, so the Fund estimates the character based on historical information. The Fund's net investment income is reduced by the amounts characterized by the REITs as capital gains and returns of capital. Amounts characterized by the REITs as capital gains are added to the Fund's net realized capital gains. Amounts characterized by the REITs as return of capital are classified as such by the Fund.

The Fund's monthly distribution is set by its Board of Trustees. The Board reviews the Fund's distribution on a quarterly basis in view of its net investment income, realized and unrealized gains, and other net unrealized appreciation or income expected during the remainder of the year. The Fund strives to establish a level monthly distribution that, over the course of the year, will serve to distribute an amount closely approximating the Fund's net investment income and net realized capital gains during the year.

The Fund estimates that it has distributed more than its net investment income and net realized capital gains; therefore, a portion of your distribution includes a return of capital. A return of capital may occur, for example, when some or all of the money that you invested in the Fund is paid back to you. A return of capital distribution does not necessarily reflect the Fund's investment performance and should not be confused with "yield" or "income."

Shareholders should not draw any conclusions about the Fund's investment performance from the amount of this distribution or from the terms of the Fund's managed distribution policy. The performance and distribution rate information disclosed in the table below is based on the Fund's net asset value ("NAV"). The Fund's NAV is calculated as the total market value of all the securities and other assets held by the Fund minus the total value of its liabilities. Performance figures are not meant to represent individual shareholder performance. The value of a shareholder's investment in the Fund is determined by the market price of the Fund's shares.

The Fund's Cumulative Total Return for fiscal year to date 2017 (January 1, 2017 through January 31, 2017) is set forth below. Shareholders should take note of the relationship between the Cumulative Total Return and the Fund's Cumulative Distribution Rate for 2017, as well as its Current Annualized Distribution Rate. Moreover, the Fund's Average Annual Total Return for the preceding five-year period (February 1, 2012 through January 31, 2017) is set forth below. Shareholders should take note of the relationship between the Fund's Average Annual Total Return and its Average Annual Distribution Rate for the preceding five-year period.

SHAREHOLDERS WILL BE SENT A FORM 1099-DIV FOR THE CALENDAR YEAR INDICATING HOW TO REPORT FUND DISTRIBUTIONS FOR FEDERAL INCOME TAX PURPOSES.

The estimated allocations presented above are based on the Fund's monthly calculation of its year-to-date net investment income, capital gains and returns of capital. The Fund's investment income is mainly comprised of distributions received from the real estate investment trusts (REITs) and other companies in which it invests. "Net investment income" refers to the Fund's investment income offset by its expenditures, which include the fees paid to the investment adviser and other service providers. "Net realized capital gains" represents the aggregation of the capital gains and losses realized by the Fund from its purchase and sale of investment securities during the year-to-date period. Short-term capital gains are those arising from the sale of securities held by the Fund for less than one year. Long-term capital gains are those arising from the sale of securities held by the Fund for a year or more. The amount of net realized capital gains is also offset by capital losses realized in prior years. Adjustments to net investment income are made based on the character of distributions received by the Fund. A portion of the distributions the Fund receives from REITs will be characterized by the REITs as capital gains or returns of capital. Because REITs often reclassify the distributions they make, the Fund does not know the ultimate character of these distributions at the time they are received, so the Fund estimates the character based on historical information. The Fund's net investment income is reduced by the amounts characterized by the REITs as capital gains and returns of capital. Amounts characterized by the REITs as capital gains are added to the Fund's net realized capital gains. Amounts characterized by the REITs as return of capital are classified as such by the Fund.

The Fund's monthly distribution is set by its Board of Trustees. The Board reviews the Fund's distribution on a quarterly basis in view of its net investment income, realized and unrealized gains, and other net unrealized appreciation or income expected during the remainder of the year. The Fund strives to establish a level monthly distribution that, over the course of the year, will serve to distribute an amount closely approximating the Fund's net investment income and net realized capital gains during the year.

The Fund estimates that it has distributed more than its net investment income and net realized capital gains; therefore, a portion of your distribution includes a return of capital. A return of capital may occur, for example, when some or all of the money that you invested in the Fund is paid back to you. A return of capital distribution does not necessarily reflect the Fund's investment performance and should not be confused with "yield" or "income."

Shareholders should not draw any conclusions about the Fund's investment performance from the amount of this distribution or from the terms of the Fund's managed distribution policy. The performance and distribution rate information disclosed in the table below is based on the Fund's net asset value ("NAV"). The Fund's NAV is calculated as the total market value of all the securities and other assets held by the Fund minus the total value of its liabilities. Performance figures are not meant to represent individual shareholder performance. The value of a shareholder's investment in the Fund is determined by the market price of the Fund's shares.

The Fund's Cumulative Total Return for fiscal year to date 2016 (January 1, 2016 through September 30, 2016) is set forth below. Shareholders should take note of the relationship between the Cumulative Total Return and the Fund's Cumulative Distribution Rate for 2016, as well as its Current Annualized Distribution Rate. Moreover, the Fund's Average Annual Total Return for the preceding five-year period (October 1, 2011 through September 30, 2016) is set forth below. Shareholders should take note of the relationship between the Fund's Average Annual Total Return and its Average Annual Distribution Rate for the preceding five-year period.

Dear Shareholder:

This notice provides detailed information which may assist you and your advisors. This notice is for informational purposes only. No action is required on your part.

CBRE Clarion Global Real Estate Income Fund (the "Fund") has declared a monthly distribution of $0.05 per share for the month of September 2016. You are receiving this notice as a requirement of the Fund's managed distribution plan. This notice is intended to provide insight into the estimated character of the current (and year-to-date) distribution(s) in terms of income, capital gain, and return of capital. You should expect to receive this notice with every distribution. The character of the current (and YTD) distribution(s) will change through the course of the year, as the Fund's estimates of the sources of its income become more clear.

The Fund has paid or declared total distributions of $0.45 per share to date in fiscal year 2016 (January 1, 2016 to September 30, 2016). The source of the distributions declared for the month and current fiscal year is estimated as follows:

Estimated Source of Distributions:

The Fund estimates that it has distributed more than its net investment income and net realized capital gains; therefore, a portion of your distribution includes a return of capital. A return of capital may occur, for example, when some or all of the money that you invested in the Fund is paid back to you. A return of capital distribution does not necessarily reflect the Fund's investment performance and should not be confused with "yield" or "income."

Shareholders should not draw any conclusions about the Fund's investment performance from the amount of this distribution or from the terms of the Fund's managed distribution policy. The performance and distribution rate information disclosed in the table below is based on the Fund's net asset value ("NAV"). The Fund's NAV is calculated as the total market value of all the securities and other assets held by the Fund minus the total value of its liabilities. Performance figures are not meant to represent individual shareholder performance. The value of a shareholder's investment in the Fund is determined by the market price of the Fund's shares.

The Fund's Cumulative Total Return for fiscal year to date 2016 (January 1, 2016 through May 31, 2016) is set forth below. Shareholders should take note of the relationship between the Cumulative Total Return and the Fund's Cumulative Distribution Rate for 2016, as well as its Current Annualized Distribution Rate. Moreover, the Fund's Average Annual Total Return for the preceding five-year period (June 1, 2011 through May 31, 2016) is set forth below. Shareholders should take note of the relationship between the Fund's Average Annual Total Return and its Average Annual Distribution Rate for the preceding five-year period.

(NYSE: IGR)

Dear Shareholder:

This notice provides detailed information which may assist you and your advisors. This notice is for informational purposes only. No action is required on your part.

CBRE Clarion Global Real Estate Income Fund (the "Fund") has declared a monthly distribution of $0.05 per share for the month of May 2016. You are receiving this notice as a requirement of the Fund's managed distribution plan. This notice is intended to provide insight into the estimated character of the current (and year-to-date) distribution(s) in terms of income, capital gain, and return of capital. You should expect to receive this notice with every distribution. The character of the current (and YTD) distribution(s) will change through the course of the year, as the Fund's estimates of the sources of its income become more clear.

The Fund has paid or declared total distributions of $0.25 per share to date in fiscal year 2016 (January 1, 2016 to May 31, 2016). The source of the distributions declared for the month and current fiscal year is estimated as follows:

Estimated Source of Distributions:
Distribution		Estimated Allocations
		Net Investment Income	Net Realized Short-Term Capital Gains	Net Realized Long-Term Capital Gains	Return of Capital
Current	$0.05	$0.023 (45%)	-- (0%)	-- (0%)	$0.027 (55%)
YTD	$0.25	$0.113 (45%)	-- (0%)	-- (0%)	$0.137 (55%)

The allocations reported in this notice are only estimates and are not provided for tax reporting purposes. The actual allocations will depend on the Fund's investment experience during the remainder of its fiscal year and will not be finalized until after year-end. In addition, the allocations reported to shareholders for tax reporting purposes will also reflect adjustments required under applicable tax regulations. Some of these tax adjustments are significant, and amounts reported to you for tax reporting may be substantially different than those presented in this notice. SHAREHOLDERS WILL BE SENT A FORM 1099-DIV FOR THE CALENDAR YEAR INDICATING HOW TO REPORT FUND DISTRIBUTIONS FOR FEDERAL INCOME TAX PURPOSES.

The estimated allocations presented above are based on the Fund's monthly calculation of its year-to-date net investment income, capital gains and returns of capital. The Fund's investment income is mainly comprised of distributions received from the real estate investment trusts (REITs) and other companies in which it invests. "Net investment income" refers to the Fund's investment income offset by its expenditures, which include the fees paid to the investment adviser and other service providers. "Net realized capital gains" represents the aggregation of the capital gains and losses realized by the Fund from its purchase and sale of investment securities during the year-to-date period. Short-term capital gains are those arising from the sale of securities held by the Fund for less than one year. Long-term capital gains are those arising from the sale of securities held by the Fund for a year or more. The amount of net realized capital gains is also offset by capital losses realized in prior years. Adjustments are made based on the character of distributions received by the Fund. A portion of the distributions the Fund receives from REITs will be characterized by the REITs as capital gains or returns of capital. Because REITs often reclassify the distributions they make, the Fund does not know the ultimate character of these distributions at the time they are received, so the Fund estimates the character based on historical information. The Fund's net investment income is reduced by the amounts characterized by the REITs as capital gains and returns of capital. Amounts characterized by the REITs as capital gains are added to the Fund's net realized capital gains. Amounts characterized by the REITs as return of capital are classified as such by the Fund.

The Fund's monthly distribution is set by its Board of Trustees. The Board reviews the Fund's distribution on a quarterly basis in view of its net investment income, realized and unrealized gains, and other net unrealized appreciation or income expected during the remainder of the year. The Fund strives to establish a level monthly distribution that, over the course of the year, will serve to distribute an amount closely approximating the Fund's net investment income and net realized capital gains during the year.

The Fund estimates that it has distributed more than its income and net realized capital gains; therefore, a portion of your distribution includes a return of capital. A return of capital may occur, for example, when some or all of the money that you invested in the Fund is paid back to you. A return of capital distribution does not necessarily reflect the Fund's investment performance and should not be confused with "yield" or "income."

Shareholders should not draw any conclusions about the Fund's investment performance from the amount of this distribution or from the terms of the Fund's managed distribution policy. The performance and distribution rate information disclosed in the table below is based on the Fund's net asset value ("NAV"). The Fund's NAV is calculated as the total market value of all the securities and other assets held by the Fund minus the total value of its liabilities. Performance figures are not meant to represent individual shareholder performance. The value of a shareholder's investment in the Fund is determined by the market price of the Fund's shares.

The Fund's Cumulative Total Return for fiscal year to date 2016 (January 1, 2016 through April 30, 2016) is set forth below. Dear Shareholder:

This notice provides detailed information which may assist you and your advisors. This notice is for informational purposes only. No action is required on your part.

CBRE Clarion Global Real Estate Income Fund (the "Fund") has declared a monthly distribution of $0.05 per share for the month of January 2016. You are receiving this notice as a requirement of the Fund's managed distribution plan. This notice is intended to provide insight into the estimated character of the current (and year-to-date) distribution(s) in terms of income, capital gain, and return of capital. You should expect to receive this notice with every distribution. The character of the current (and YTD) distribution(s) will change through the course of the year, as the Fund's estimates of the sources of its income become more clear.

The Fund has paid or declared total distribution of $0.05 per share to date in fiscal year 2016 (January 1, 2016 to January 31, 2016). The source of the distribution declared for the month and current fiscal year is estimated as follows:

Estimated Source of Distributions:
Distribution		Estimated Allocations
		Net Investment Income	Net Realized Short-Term Capital Gains	Net Realized Long-Term Capital Gains	Return of Capital
Current	$0.05	$0.019 (37%)	-- (0%)	-- (0%)	$0.031 (63%)
YTD	$0.05	$0.019 (37%)	-- (0%)	-- (0%)	$0.031 (63%)

The allocations reported in this notice are only estimates and are not provided for tax reporting purposes. The actual allocations will depend on the Fund's investment experience during the remainder of its fiscal year and will not be finalized until after year-end. In addition, the allocations reported to shareholders for tax reporting purposes will also reflect adjustments required under applicable tax regulations. Some of these tax adjustments are significant, and amounts reported to you for tax reporting may be substantially different than those presented in this notice. SHAREHOLDERS WILL BE SENT A FORM 1099-DIV FOR THE CALENDAR YEAR INDICATING HOW TO REPORT FUND DISTRIBUTIONS FOR FEDERAL INCOME TAX PURPOSES.

The estimated allocations presented above are based on the Fund's monthly calculation of its year-to-date net investment income, capital gains and returns of capital. The Fund's investment income is mainly comprised of distributions received from the real estate investment trusts (REITs) and other companies in which it invests. "Net investment income" refers to the Fund's investment income offset by its expenditures, which include the fees paid to the investment adviser and other service providers. "Net realized capital gains" represents the aggregation of the capital gains and losses realized by the Fund from its purchase and sale of investment securities during the year-to-date period. Short-term capital gains are those arising from the sale of securities held by the Fund for less than one year. Long-term capital gains are those arising from the sale of securities held by the Fund for a year or more. Adjustments are made to net investment income and net realized capital gains based on the character of distributions received by the Fund. A portion of the distributions the Fund receives from REITs will be characterized by the REITs as capital gains or returns of capital. Because REITs often reclassify the distributions they make, the Fund does not know the ultimate character of these distributions at the time they are received, so the Fund estimates the character based on historical information. The Fund's net investment income is reduced by the amounts characterized as capital gains and returns of capital. Amounts characterized as capital gains are added to the Fund's net realized capital gains. The amount of net realized capital gains is also offset by capital losses realized in prior years.

The Fund's monthly distribution is set by its Board of Trustees. The Board reviews the Fund's distribution on a quarterly basis in view of its net investment income, realized and unrealized gains, and other net unrealized appreciation or income expected during the remainder of the year. The Fund strives to establish a level monthly distribution that, over the course of the year, will serve to distribute an amount closely approximating the Fund's net investment income and net realized capital gains during the year.

The Fund estimates that it has distributed more than its income and net realized capital gains; therefore, a portion of your distribution includes a return of capital. A return of capital may occur, for example, when some or all of the money that you invested in the Fund is paid back to you. A return of capital distribution does not necessarily reflect the Fund's investment performance and should not be confused with "yield" or "income."

Shareholders should not draw any conclusions about the Fund's investment performance from the amount of this distribution or from the terms of the Fund's managed distribution policy. The performance and distribution rate information disclosed in the table below is based on the Fund's net asset value ("NAV"). The Fund's NAV is calculated as the total market value of all the securities and other assets held by the Fund minus the total value of its liabilities. Performance figures are not meant to represent individual shareholder performance. The value of a shareholder's investment in the Fund is determined by the market price of the Fund's shares.

The Fund's Cumulative Total Return for fiscal year to date 2015 (January 1, 2015 through December 31, 2015) is set forth below. Shareholders should take note of the relationship between the Cumulative Total Return and the Fund's Cumulative Distribution Rate for 2015, as well as its Current Annualized Distribution Rate. Moreover, the Fund's Average Annual Total Return for the preceding five-year period (January 1, 2011 through December 31, 2015) is set forth below. Shareholders should take note of the relationship between the Fund's Average Annual Total Return and its Average Annual Distribution Rate for the preceding five-year period.

Dear Shareholders:

This notice provides detailed information which may assist you and your advisors. This notice is for informational purposes only. No action is required on your part.

CBRE Clarion Global Real Estate Income Fund (the "Fund") has declared a monthly distribution of $0.05 per share for the month of November 2015. You are receiving this notice as a requirement of the Fund's managed distribution plan. This notice is intended to provide insight into the estimated character of the current (and year-to-date) distribution(s) in terms of income, capital gain, and return of capital. You should expect to receive this notice with every distribution. The character of the current (and YTD) distribution(s) will change through the course of the year, as the Fund's estimates of the sources of its income become more clear.

The Fund has paid or declared total distributions of $0.52 per share to date in fiscal year 2015 (January 1, 2015 to November 30, 2015). The source of the distributions declared for the month and current fiscal year is estimated as follows:

Estimated Source of Distributions:
Distribution		Estimated Allocations
		Net Investment Income*	Net Realized Short-Term Capital Gains	Net Realized Long-Term Capital Gains	Return of Capital
Current	$0.05	$0.010 (20%)	-- (0%)	-- (0%)	$0.040 (80%)
YTD	$0.52	$0.103 (20%)	-- (0%)	-- (0%)	$0.417 (80%)

*Includes PFIC losses, as defined below.

The amounts and sources of distributions reported in this 19(a) Notice are only estimates and are not provided for tax reporting purposes. The actual amounts and sources of the amounts for accounting and tax reporting purposes will depend upon the Fund's investment experience during the remainder of its fiscal year and may be subject to changes based on tax regulations. SHAREHOLDERS WILL BE SENT A FORM 1099-DIV FOR THE CALENDAR YEAR INDICATING HOW TO REPORT FUND DISTRIBUTIONS FOR FEDERAL INCOME TAX PURPOSES.

The Fund's distribution policy is established by its Board of Trustees. The monthly distribution is set by the Board at regular intervals with consideration of investment income, realized gains, return of capital by portfolio companies, potential net appreciation of investments in "passive foreign investment companies" ("PFICs"), and other net unrealized appreciation and other income expected for the year. Each distribution is expected to be paid from some or all of the following sources: net investment income, realized capital gains and, in certain cases, return of capital. The Fund's distribution rate should not be confused with pure income or yield. The Fund strives to establish a level monthly distribution that, over the course of the year, will serve to distribute an amount closely approximating the total taxable income of the Fund and all of the returns of capital by portfolio companies received by the Fund during the year.

The Fund invests primarily in real estate investment trusts ("REITs") and similar companies. When these companies make distributions during the year, they do not disclose the character of those distributions. The Fund uses historical information to generate the estimated character reflected in this notice. Until the Fund receives information as to the character of distributions it has received from these companies – generally around January 31 of the following year – it cannot provide a definitive characterization of the source of distributions paid to shareholders.

The Fund invests in certain companies that have been designated as PFICs for purposes of U.S. tax regulations. Increases in the value of these PFICs ("PFIC Income") increase the income of the Fund, even when those gains have not been realized. The amount of net investment income described in the foregoing table (Estimated Source of Distributions) may include PFIC Income. Conversely, decreases in the value of these PFICs ("PFIC Losses") offset the other investment income of the Fund, even when those losses have not been realized. The amount of net investment income in the foregoing table (Estimated Source of Distributions) may have been reduced by PFIC Losses.

The Fund estimates that it has distributed more than its income and net realized capital gains; therefore, a portion of your distribution may be a return of capital. A return of capital may occur, for example, when some or all of the money that you invested in the Fund is paid back to you. A return of capital distribution does not necessarily reflect the Fund's investment performance and should not be confused with "yield" or "income".

Shareholders should not draw any conclusions about the Fund's investment performance from the amount of this distribution or from the terms of the Fund's managed distribution policy. The performance and distribution rate information disclosed in the table below is based on the Fund's net asset value ("NAV"). The Fund's NAV is calculated as the total market value of all the securities and other assets held by the Fund minus the total value of its liabilities. Performance figures are not meant to represent individual shareholder performance. The value of a shareholder's investment in the Fund is determined by the market price of the Fund's shares.

The Fund's Cumulative Total Return for fiscal year to date 2015 (January 1, 2015 through October 31, 2015) is set forth below. Shareholders should take note of the relationship between the Cumulative Total Return and the Fund's Cumulative Distribution Rate for 2015, as well as its Current Annualized Distribution Rate. Moreover, the Fund's Average Annual Total Return for the preceding five-year period (November 1, 2010 through October 31, 2015) is set forth below. Shareholders should take note of the relationship between the Fund's Average Annual Total Return and its Average Annual Distribution Rate for the preceding five-year period.

The amounts and sources of distributions reported in this 19(a) Notice are only estimates and are not provided for tax reporting purposes. The actual amounts and sources of the amounts for accounting and tax reporting purposes will depend upon the Fund's investment experience during the remainder of its fiscal year and may be subject to changes based on tax regulations. SHAREHOLDERS WILL BE SENT A FORM 1099-DIV FOR THE CALENDAR YEAR INDICATING HOW TO REPORT FUND DISTRIBUTIONS FOR FEDERAL INCOME TAX PURPOSES.

The Fund's distribution policy is established by its Board of Trustees. The monthly distribution is set by the Board at regular intervals with consideration of investment income, realized gains, return of capital by portfolio companies, potential net appreciation of investments in "passive foreign investment companies" ("PFICs"), and other net unrealized appreciation and other income expected for the year. Each distribution is expected to be paid from some or all of the following sources: net investment income, realized capital gains and, in certain cases, return of capital. The Fund's distribution rate should not be confused with pure income or yield. The Fund strives to establish a level monthly distribution that, over the course of the year, will serve to distribute an amount closely approximating the total taxable income of the Fund and all of the returns of capital by portfolio companies received by the Fund during the year.

The Fund invests primarily in real estate investment trusts ("REITs") and similar companies. When these companies make distributions during the year, they do not disclose the character of those distributions. The Fund uses historical information to generate the estimated character reflected in this notice. Until the Fund receives information as to the character of distributions it has received from these companies – generally around January 31 of the following year – it cannot provide a definitive characterization of the source of distributions paid to shareholders.

The Fund invests in certain companies that have been designated as PFICs for purposes of U.S. tax regulations. Increases in the value of these PFICs ("PFIC Income") increase the income of the Fund, even when those gains have not been realized. The amount of net investment income described in the foregoing table (Estimated Source of Distributions) may include PFIC Income. Conversely, decreases in the value of these PFICs ("PFIC Losses") offset the other investment income of the Fund, even when those losses have not been realized. The amount of net investment income in the foregoing table (Estimated Source of Distributions) may have been reduced by PFIC Losses.

The Fund estimates that it has distributed more than its income and net realized capital gains; therefore, a portion of your distribution may be a return of capital. A return of capital may occur, for example, when some or all of the money that you invested in the Fund is paid back to you. A return of capital distribution does not necessarily reflect the Fund's investment performance and should not be confused with "yield" or "income".

Shareholders should not draw any conclusions about the Fund's investment performance from the amount of this distribution or from the terms of the Fund's managed distribution policy. The performance and distribution rate information disclosed in the table below is based on the Fund's net asset value ("NAV"). The Fund's NAV is calculated as the total market value of all the securities and other assets held by the Fund minus the total value of its liabilities. Performance figures are not meant to represent individual shareholder performance. The value of a shareholder's investment in the Fund is determined by the market price of the Fund's shares.

The Fund's Cumulative Total Return for fiscal year to date 2015 (January 1, 2015 through August 31, 2015) is set forth below. Shareholders should take note of the relationship between the Cumulative Total Return and the Fund's Cumulative Distribution Rate for 2015, as well as its Current Annualized Distribution Rate. Moreover, the Fund's Average Annual Total Return for the preceding five-year period (September 1, 2010 through August 31, 2015) is set forth below. Shareholders should take note of the relationship between the Fund's Average Annual Total Return and its Average Annual Distribution Rate for the preceding five-year period.

Dear Shareholders:

This notice provides detailed information which may assist you and your advisors. This notice is for informational purposes only. No action is required on your part.

CBRE Clarion Global Real Estate Income Fund (the "Fund") has declared a monthly distribution of $0.05 per share for the month of August 2015. You are receiving this notice as a requirement of the Fund's managed distribution plan. This notice is intended to provide insight into the estimated character of the current (and year-to-date) distribution(s) in terms of income, capital gain, and return of capital. You should expect to receive this notice with every distribution. The character of the current (and YTD) distribution(s) will change through the course of the year, as the Fund's estimates of the sources of its income become more clear.

The Fund has paid or declared total distributions of $0.37 per share to date in fiscal year 2015 (January 1, 2015 to August 31, 2015). The source of the distributions declared for the month and current fiscal year is estimated as follows:

Dear Shareholders:

This notice provides detailed information which may assist you and your advisors. This notice is for informational purposes only. No action is required on your part.

CBRE Clarion Global Real Estate Income Fund (the "Fund") has declared a monthly distribution of $0.045 per share for the month of May 2015. You are receiving this notice as a requirement of the Fund's managed distribution plan. This notice is intended to provide insight into the estimated character of the current (and year-to-date) distribution(s) in terms of income, capital gain, and return of capital. You should expect to receive this notice with every distribution. The character of the current (and YTD) distribution(s) will change through the course of the year, as the Fund's estimates of the sources of its income become more clear.

The Fund has paid or declared total distributions of $0.225 per share to date in fiscal year 2015 (January 1, 2015 to May 31, 2015). The source of the distributions declared for the month and current fiscal year is estimated as follows:

Estimated Source of Distributions:
Distribution		Estimated Allocations
		Net Investment Income*	Net Realized Short-Term Capital Gains	Net Realized Long-Term Capital Gains	Return of Capital
Current	$0.045	$0.016 (36%)	-- (0%)	-- (0%)	$0.029 (64%)
YTD	$0.225	$0.081 (36%)	-- (0%)	-- (0%)	$0.144 (64%)

*Includes PFIC losses, as defined below.

The amounts and sources of distributions reported in this 19(a) Notice are only estimates and are not provided for tax reporting purposes. The actual amounts and sources of the amounts for accounting and tax reporting purposes will depend upon the Fund's investment experience during the remainder of its fiscal year and may be subject to changes based on tax regulations. SHAREHOLDERS WILL BE SENT A FORM 1099-DIV FOR THE CALENDAR YEAR INDICATING HOW TO REPORT FUND DISTRIBUTIONS FOR FEDERAL INCOME TAX PURPOSES.

The Fund's dividend policy is established by its Board of Trustees. The dividend is set by the Board at regular intervals with consideration of investment income, realized gains, return of capital by portfolio companies, potential net appreciation of investments in "passive foreign investment companies" ("PFICs"), and other net unrealized appreciation and other income expected for the year. Each distribution is expected to be paid from some or all of the following sources: net investment income, realized capital gains and, in certain cases, return of capital. The Fund's distribution rate should not be confused with pure income or yield. The Fund strives to establish a level regular dividend that, over the course of the year, will serve to distribute an amount closely approximating the total taxable income of the Fund and all of the returns of capital by portfolio companies received by the Fund during the year.

The Fund invests primarily in real estate investment trusts ("REITs") and similar companies. When these companies make distributions during the year, they do not disclose the character of those distributions. The Fund uses historical information to generate the estimated character reflected in this notice. Until the Fund receives information as to the character of distributions it has received from these companies – generally around January 31 of the following year – it cannot provide a definitive characterization of the source of distributions paid to shareholders.

The Fund invests in certain companies that have been designated as PFICs for purposes of U.S. tax regulations. Increases in the value of these PFICs ("PFIC Income") increase the income of the Fund, even when those gains have not been realized. The amount of net investment income described in the foregoing table (Estimated Source of Distributions) may include PFIC Income. Conversely, decreases in the value of these PFICs ("PFIC Losses") offset the other investment income of the Fund, even when those losses have not been realized. The amount of net investment income in the foregoing table (Estimated Source of Distributions) may have been reduced by PFIC Losses.

The Fund estimates that it has distributed more than its income and net realized capital gains; therefore, a portion of your distribution may be a return of capital. A return of capital may occur, for example, when some or all of the money that you invested in the Fund is paid back to you. A return of capital distribution does not necessarily reflect the Fund's investment performance and should not be confused with "yield" or "income".

Shareholders should not draw any conclusions about the Fund's investment performance from the amount of this distribution or from the terms of the Fund's managed distribution policy. The performance and distribution rate information disclosed in the table below is based on the Fund's net asset value ("NAV").

Fund's NAV is calculated as the total market value of all the securities and other assets held by the Fund minus the total value of its liabilities. Performance figures are not meant to represent individual shareholder performance. The value of a shareholder's investment in the Fund is determined by the market price of the Fund's shares.

The Fund's Cumulative Total Return for fiscal year to date 2015 (January 1, 2015 through April 30, 2015) is set forth below. Shareholders should take note of the relationship between the Cumulative Total Return and the Fund's Cumulative Distribution Rate for 2015. Moreover, the Fund's Average Annual Total Return for the preceding five-year period (May 1, 2010 through April 30, 2015) is set forth below. Shareholders should take note of the relationship between the Fund's Average Annual Total Return and the Fund's Current Annualized Distribution Rate, as well as its Average Annual Distribution Rate for the preceding five-year period.

Dear Shareholders:

This notice provides detailed information which may assist you and your advisors. This notice is for informational purposes only. No action is required on your part.

CBRE Clarion Global Real Estate Income Fund (the "Fund") has declared a monthly distribution of $0.045 per share for the month of April 2015. You are receiving this notice as a requirement of the Fund's managed distribution plan. This notice is intended to provide insight into the estimated character of the current (and year-to-date) distribution(s) in terms of income, capital gain, and return of capital. You should expect to receive this notice with every distribution. The character of the current (and YTD) distribution(s) will change through the course of the year, as the Fund's estimates of the sources of its income become more clear.

The Fund has paid or declared total distributions of $0.18 per share to date in fiscal year 2015 (January 1, 2015 to April 30, 2015). The source of the distributions declared for the month and current fiscal year is estimated as follows:

Estimated Source of Distributions:
Distribution		Estimated Allocations
		Net Investment Income*	Net Realized Short-Term Capital Gains	Net Realized Long-Term Capital Gains	Return of Capital
Current	$0.045	$0.014 (31%)	-- (0%)	-- (0%)	$0.031 (69%)
YTD	$0.18	$0.055 (31%)	-- (0%)	-- (0%)	$0.125 (69%)

*Includes PFIC losses, as defined below.

The amounts and sources of distributions reported in this 19(a) Notice are only estimates and are not provided for tax reporting purposes. The actual amounts and sources of the amounts for accounting and tax reporting purposes will depend upon the Fund's investment experience during the remainder of its fiscal year and may be subject to changes based on tax regulations. SHAREHOLDERS WILL BE SENT A FORM 1099-DIV FOR THE CALENDAR YEAR INDICATING HOW TO REPORT FUND DISTRIBUTIONS FOR FEDERAL INCOME TAX PURPOSES.

The Fund's dividend policy is established by its Board of Trustees. The dividend is set by the Board at regular intervals with consideration of investment income, realized gains, return of capital by portfolio companies, potential net appreciation of investments in "passive foreign investment companies" ("PFICs"), and other net unrealized appreciation and other income expected for the year. Each distribution is expected to be paid from some or all of the following sources: net investment income, realized capital gains and, in certain cases, return of capital. The Fund's distribution rate should not be confused with pure income or yield. The Fund strives to establish a level regular dividend that, over the course of the year, will serve to distribute an amount closely approximating the total taxable income of the Fund and all of the returns of capital by portfolio companies received by the Fund during the year.

The Fund invests primarily in real estate investment trusts ("REITs") and similar companies. When these companies make distributions during the year, they do not disclose the character of those distributions. The Fund uses historical information to generate the estimated character reflected in this notice. Until the Fund receives information as to the character of distributions it has received from these companies – generally around January 31 of the following year – it cannot provide a definitive characterization of the source of distributions paid to shareholders.

The Fund invests in certain companies that have been designated as PFICs for purposes of U.S. tax regulations. Increases in the value of these PFICs ("PFIC Income") increase the income of the Fund. PFIC Income does not reflect dividends or other income actually received by the Fund, although it does serve to increase the net investment income the Fund is required to distribute. The amount of net investment income described in the foregoing table (Estimated Source of Distributions) may include PFIC Income. Decreases in the value of these PFICs ("PFIC Losses") offset the other investment income of the Fund. PFIC Losses do not reflect a diminution in the amount of dividends or income actually received by the Fund, although they do serve to reduce the net investment income the Fund is required to distribute. The amount of net investment income in the foregoing table (Estimated Source of Distributions) may have been reduced by PFIC Losses.

The Fund estimates that it has distributed more than its income and net realized capital gains; therefore, a portion of your distribution may be a return of capital. A return of capital may occur, for example, when some or all of the money that you invested in the Fund is paid back to you. A return of capital distribution does not necessarily reflect the Fund's investment performance and should not be confused with "yield" or "income".

Shareholders should not draw any conclusions about the Fund's investment performance from the amount of this distribution or from the terms of the Fund's managed distribution policy. The performance and distribution rate information disclosed in the table below is based on the Fund's net asset value ("NAV"). The Fund's NAV is calculated as the total market value of all the securities and other assets held by the Fund minus the total value of its liabilities. Performance figures are not meant to represent individual shareholder performance. The value of a shareholder's investment in the Fund is determined by the market price of the Fund's shares.
