2018 State Tax Information

The amount shown in Box 1a of IRS Form 1099-DIV may include income derived from U.S. government obligations, which may be exempt from your state income tax. To determine the portion of dividends that are derived from U.S. government obligations and may be exempt for your state income tax, multiply the amount reported to you in Box 1a of your 1099-DIV by the percentage listed below. To determine whether this income is exempt from your state and local taxes, please consult your tax advisor.

CBRE Clarion Global Real Estate Income Fund: 0.0000%

Certain states impose a tangible tax generally on the value of your fund shares as of a specific date (Florida and Kentucky). Others impose an intangible property tax on fund shares (certain counties of Kansas). The value of your shares attributable to US government obligations, if any, may be exempt from the intangibles property tax. To determine this amount, multiply the value of your shares on December 31, 2018 by the percentages listed below. Please consult your tax advisor for additional information.
